

Who Our Members Are

Membership in the Sonoma County Alliance is open to any individual, business, trade, agriculture, or labor organization, public or private. All share a mutual desire to pull their diverse talents together to put order and strength to their energies, thus making membership in the Sonoma County Alliance a tangible investment in the present and future welfare of Sonoma County. The Sonoma County Alliance network supports the interest of its members through representation, advocacy, and education.

What we do

Since our founding in 1975 we:

Educate members, decision-makers, and the public on issues effecting businesses.

Work to influence government decisions affecting the economy.

Seek realistic approaches to land use ordinances and issues.

Initiate and support action to reduce non-essential government spending.

Promote conservation and effective use of natural resources.

Advocate farmland protection and retention of a sound land inventory.

Strive to meet the transportation, housing, water supply and infrastructure needs of the County.

What we believe

The Sonoma County Alliance recognizes that one of our strengths is that we are not all the same. Our advocacy aims to advance economic opportunity for all businesses and their employees. We believe inclusion with diverse groups in the community is the key to our shared prosperity and propels us forward.
